

National Emergency Paediatric Trauma Update & NETworking Conference
Programme: Day 1 - (29th June 2023)

0815-0845	Registration
0845-0915	Welcome Address: Dr Colin Gilhooley, Paediatric Emergency Medicine consultant and Head of Service CYPED, Queens Medical Centre, Nottingham  Chief Guest: Anthony May, Chief Executive Officer, Queens Medical Centre, Nottingham
0915-0945	Keynote Address: Professor Chris Moran, Professor of Orthopaedic Trauma Surgery at Nottingham University Hospital
0945-1030	The Future of Paediatric Fracture Management: Daniel Perry, Honorary Consultant Children's Orthopaedic Surgeon, Alder Hey Hospital, Liverpool. &amp; NIHR Clinician Scientist
1030-1115	Pain &amp; Painful Procedures: Becky Platt, Advanced Care Practitioner, Paediatric Emergency Department, Royal London Hospital, Executive member of the Don't Forget the Bubbles
1115-1145	Refreshments
1145-1230	Youth violence
1230-1315	Traumatic Cardiac Arrest: Ian Maconochie, Paediatric Emergency Medicine consultant and Professor of Practice in Paediatric Emergency Medicine at Imperial College, London
1315- 1415	Lunch
1415-1500	Paediatric Blast Injuries: Paul Reavley, Paediatric Emergency Medicine consultant, Bristol Children's Hospital and Paediatric Blast Injury Partnership Co-Chair,
1500-1545	Major Incidents Triage: Simon Carley, Emergency Medicine consultant, Manchester Foundation Trust
1545-1630	Paediatric trauma in pre-hospital environment: Nottinghamshire Air Ambulance
1630-1830	Workshops will be running in parallel. Please note: Workshops have an additional charge. Every workshop has a maximum capacity of 20, on a first come first serve basis. <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Regional blocks</th> <th>Advanced Ultrasound for paediatric trauma</th> <th>The unstable trauma patient</th> <th>Minor injuries</th> <th>Leadership in paediatric trauma</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Sharpen your skills in ring, facial and USS-guided femoral blocks.</td> <td>Take a deep dive into the role of ultrasound in paediatric trauma and in get hands on experience.</td> <td>Focus on critical decision-making in the unstable trauma patient through sim scenarios before revisiting essential emergency practical skills.</td> <td>Understand how to assess fracture patterns, need for reduction, and cast/splint selection. Get messy with hands-on casting of your fellow delegates.</td> <td>A fun activity-based session of reflection, self-interrogation and development focusing on enhancing your natural attributes to be a better trauma team leader (and follower).</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Regional blocks	Advanced Ultrasound for paediatric trauma	The unstable trauma patient	Minor injuries	Leadership in paediatric trauma	Sharpen your skills in ring, facial and USS-guided femoral blocks.	Take a deep dive into the role of ultrasound in paediatric trauma and in get hands on experience.	Focus on critical decision-making in the unstable trauma patient through sim scenarios before revisiting essential emergency practical skills.	Understand how to assess fracture patterns, need for reduction, and cast/splint selection. Get messy with hands-on casting of your fellow delegates.	A fun activity-based session of reflection, self-interrogation and development focusing on enhancing your natural attributes to be a better trauma team leader (and follower).
Regional blocks	Advanced Ultrasound for paediatric trauma	The unstable trauma patient	Minor injuries	Leadership in paediatric trauma
Sharpen your skills in ring, facial and USS-guided femoral blocks.	Take a deep dive into the role of ultrasound in paediatric trauma and in get hands on experience.	Focus on critical decision-making in the unstable trauma patient through sim scenarios before revisiting essential emergency practical skills.	Understand how to assess fracture patterns, need for reduction, and cast/splint selection. Get messy with hands-on casting of your fellow delegates.	A fun activity-based session of reflection, self-interrogation and development focusing on enhancing your natural attributes to be a better trauma team leader (and follower).
1930	Conference Dinner

Day 2 - (30th June 2023)

0830-0900	Registration
0900-0945	Updates and Insights from TARN - Ross Fisher, Consultant Paediatric Surgeon, Sheffield Children's Hospital &amp; co-Chairman of TARNlet
0945-1030	Paediatric Trauma in the Trauma Unit; serving remote and rural populations: Clare Dieppe, Paediatric Emergency Medicine consultant, Swansea Bay University Health Board
1030-1115	Poster Viva & Refreshments
1115-1200	Paediatric trauma: an educationist's perspective: Matt Edwards, Emergency Medicine consultant, King's College Hospital
1200-1245	Paediatric hand and wrist Injuries, pearls and pitfalls for the ED clinician: Dan Armstrong, consultant Hand and Wrist Surgeon, University Hospitals of Derby &amp; Burton; Honorary Assistant Professor Nottingham University Medical School
1245-1330	Lunch
1330-1430	Top 5 abstract presentations
1430-1500	Impact of Children's Trauma on Patient and Family: Naomi Davies, Consultant in Children's Orthopaedic Surgery, Royal Manchester Children's Hospital
1500-1515	Brain Injury Impact and Rehabilitation: Denise Crozier, Paediatric Neurodisability Consultant and BRILL Team, Nottingham University Hospitals
1530-1545	Refreshments
1545-1615	PEM Adventures team: a trauma adventure Dani Hall, Paediatric Emergency Medicine consultant, Children's Health Ireland at Crumlin, Senior Lecturer Queen Mary University London, Executive director of Don't Forget the Bubbles Sam Thenabadu, Emergency Medicine consultant at King's College Hospital Costas Kanaris, Paediatric Critical Care and Retrieval Consultant at Cambridge University NHS Foundation Trust
1615- 1700	Closing ceremony & Vote of Thanks

Please note:

Speaker sessions will be followed by panel discussions between practitioners in the field with opportunity for Q&A from the audience.

This is a provisional programme and speakers; topics and timetable may be subject to change.