

ECS Neurological Module

Time	Session
09:00-09:15	Welcome, introductions, and overview of the course
09:15—10:00	Primary and Secondary Headaches <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Prevalence - Classification - Pathophysiology
10:00-10:45	Seizures Types, Causes and Pathophysiology <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Classification - Pathophysiology
10:45-11:10	Break
11:10-12:00	Traditional Medical History: Neurology History taking <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Structure of History taking - Application of SOCRATES - Cardinal and Associated Symptoms Relevant to the neurological system
12:00-12:30	Red Flags of the Neurological system <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Reiterate how recognition of RED Flags is an important element of the clinical reasoning process. - Categorise the RED flags of the neurological system.
12:30- 13:15	Lunch
13:15-14:00	Neurological examination: MINI
14:00-14:15	Neurological MINI examination – demonstration
14:15 – 14:30	Question and Answers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Summary of the course so far
14:30- 14:45	BREAK
14:45-16:30	SIMULATIONS Rotation around 2x Simulated Participants (SPs) with 1X History station (F2F) 1x Examination station (each SP will have 1x Hx to give)
16:30-17:00	Questions, Summary, Evaluation and Close